Significant event notification form

Master trusts: notifying us of a significant event

For guidance on notifying us of a significant event, see: www.tpr.gov.uk/master-trust-pension-schemes/significant-event-duties-for-master-trusts.

You must notify us of a significant event as soon as reasonably practicable once you are aware of it. This normally means within five working days of becoming aware of an event but the schedule is shorter for some events as detailed in our Code of Practice no.15: Authorisation and supervision of master trusts.

Please send us information about the significant event using this form. If there are multiple significant events and they are all related, you should notify us of the related events within one form, but if there are multiple significant events and they are not related, you should notify us of each event separately.

Please complete all relevant sections of the form in full, and ensure any additional documentation/information not included with the original notification is sent to us within 10 working days. If you later receive documents that you did not have sight of at the time of notification, please follow up by sending those to us too. You can submit such documents to the same email address at: MasterTrustSupervision@tpr.gov.uk.

If the notification form or additional documents contain any sensitive personal information, you may wish to protect them with a password and email the password to us separately.

If you are only notifying us about a significant event and do not have responsibility for resolving it, please fill in the contact details in the section headed 'Contact details (decision-maker, if different from above)'.

This form is interactive so can either be:

- ▶ completed electronically and emailed to: MasterTrustSupervision@tpr.gov.uk, or
- ▶ printed, completed by hand (please use block capitals) and posted to:
Master Trust Supervision, The Pensions Regulator, Telecom House, 125-135
Preston Road, Brighton BN1 6AF

Please note

We will use the information provided in exercising our functions and may contact you for further information. You are also advised to keep a copy of the completed form for your records.

Data protection statement

The Pensions Regulator (TPR) is a data controller for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. We process personal data held by us for the purpose of the exercise of any of our statutory functions and objectives. We may also process personal data under other legislation such as the Fraud Act. This includes, for the avoidance of doubt, taking regulatory or enforcement action for breaches of any of this legislation.

We will only store your personal data for as long as our retention schedule allows. During this time, you may be able to exercise certain rights in relation to your personal data such as the right to access, objection and data portability. If you feel that we have handled your personal data in a manner inconsistent with your rights, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

If you have any questions about how we handle your personal data please contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) by email at: dpa@tpr.gov.uk or write to us at Telecom House, 125-135 Preston Road Brighton, BN1 6AF. Further information on how your personal data is used, kept secure and your rights can be found by reading our privacy notice.

Any information, including any third party data, supplied to TPR may be used (including further disclosure) in connection with any of our statutory functions. TPR may check information it receives about you with what it already holds on its records. This includes information that you have provided as well as that given by others, such as government departments. We will not give information to anyone outside TPR unless the law allows us to do so.
